

Leave the Driving to HSM!

Exploring Grand Rapid's Past Motor Coach Tour

Join the Historical Society of Michigan for an educational day highlighting historic sites in Grand Rapids.

Saturday, June 12, 2010

9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Registration: $79 for HSM members
$109 for non-members (includes 1-yr basic HSM membership)

Registration includes transportation, lunch, admissions and full tour narration. Non-member registration includes one-year basic HSM membership.

Tour leaves at 9:00am and returns at 4:00pm. Return time is approximate.

Gordon Olson, Grand Rapids' city historian emeritus, will lead this fascinating tour into the Furniture City's past. Visiting sites as diverse as Heritage Hill and the West Side, not to mention local landmarks, attendees will gain a unique perspective on Michigan's second-largest city.

Tour includes Heritage Hill, Grand Rapids West Side, Public Museum of Grand Rapids, Gerald R. Ford Museum, Averill Museum and a stop at the historic covered bridge in Ada.

The tour leaves from the Park-n-Ride lot in the southeast corner of the Meijer Cascade store located at 5531 28th Street Court Southeast in Grand Rapids near I-96.
